At a Single Cast Lucky Fisherman Got Three Fine Ones on His Line.

First sea bass are now biting in the waters off Seabright and along the northern coast of New Jersey; in the waters off Long Island and at the various fishing banks, known locally and Seventeen Fathoms, and also at the wrecks of those steamers now for years on the ocean's floor, the Italian, Black Warrior and the Iberia.

The biggest seabass were taken by John Treaton, Iberia wreck, 6 pounds: Rocks, 41-2 pounds.

Some years ago twenty miles southest of Cape Henlopen the fishing steamer Col. T. E. Twenty-four men were in the crew, and each man's work resulted in a catch of more than a thousand fish. The exact number was 24,794, and because they could not stow away more fish on ice further chase of the sea bass school was abandoned by the fihrermen.

STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM

It Took Foresight and Imagination To Buy Manhattan Island for $24

-Are You Reading Chapter by Chapter?

The STORY of JUNE 23rd

CHAPTER V

WHAT MAKES THE VALUE OF REAL ESTATE

AS you probably know, Manhattan Island was bought from the Indians for $24 worth of "Junk."

That "Deal" in Real Estate set an example to Investors in New York Real Estate "unto the Third and Fourth Generation.'

For instance, the corner of Broadway and 59th Street sold at Auction for $875. It is worth today $300,000 to $400,000. Why is it worth that money? Because it's a corner on Broadway opposite to the Entrance to Central Park.

ON JUNE 23rd there are going to be sold at Auction several lots that in time will be even more valuable than the 59th Street corner-and that's no joke, because they're not alone at the ONLY BROADWAY ENTRANCE to the Great City of New York-Broadway, the Main Artery of that City-the Greatest Street In The World-but also at what will be the entrance to Van Cortlandt Park.

If the City Planning is carried out consistently, here will be a Grand Plaza worthy of the Entrance to the Great Metropolis—combined with the Entrance to the Second Largest Park in that Metropolis.

Into that Plaza will run-probably-a Van Cortlandt Park North, similar to a Central Park South-262d Street-the most northerly street in the city, which connects Riverdale Avenue with Broadway—also Caryl Avenue, on which, 430 yards distant, is the Caryl Station—and other streets and

Why—if this spot was in any European City there would be four Arcs de Triumph—18 Statues of Heroes—two Tombs of Napoleon and a charge of two cents for every bunch of radishes brought into the City.

This Plaza, besides being the Gateway to the City and the Park, will form the center of the activities of that part of the City and Yonkers, and should be a Columbus Circle, a 5th Avenue and 59th Street, a Times Square, a Herald Squareall combined.

What will these lots then be worth? Could you duplicate them in any other City in the World?

Surrounding lots should share in these values. That's why you should go and look at this property—that is what makes it interesting—THERE'S BIG MONEY TO BE MADE THERE if you only have foresight and imagination enough to see its tremendous future possibilities. Be sure to read Chapter VI tomorrow.
